Fair play in the sex business

- ♥ First impressions count: respect, politeness and a well-groomed appearance will get you to your goal more easily.
- ♥ Alcohol and other drugs affect your staying power and can lead to inappropriate behaviour. Less is more here!
- ♥ A man keeps his word: clear agreements on prices and services will spare you disappointments. Don't try to renegotiate!
- ♥ Fair clients respect boundaries: no means no. Tongue kissing, for example, is usually unwelcome.
- ♥ Condom or condom? Whether it's black, green or blue, ribbed or dotted – there's nothing doing without one. After all, condoms protect against HIV and other sexually transmitted infections.
- ♥ Business is business. No matter how wonderful it was – it has nothing to do with love. So stay cool and keep your feet on the ground!
- ♥ If you are not satisfied, don't demand your money back: keep calm and say what the problem is.
- ♥ If it doesn't work once in a while, that's nobody's "fault". Pressure to perform doesn't help anyone – but relaxing and trying again can help.
- ♥ And another thing: if you suspect that someone is being forced or threatened with violence, don't play the hero – it's better to contact an advice centre (addresses: www.freiersein.de/information/beratung.php).
